CÂU 18–21 · BOULLAND TO PENALIZE WHOLESALERS

📦 Boulland to Penalize Wholesalers
(Oct. 5)
Laboratory equipment retailer Boulland reported today that, as part of a push for greater inventory control, it will begin charging its wholesale suppliers penalties if they do not meet agreed-upon delivery windows at least 90 percent of the time.

"There is a significant financial cost when we do not maintain an optimal amount of stock on our shelves," says Joca Galvan, Boulland's chief receiving officer. "So it is critical that our suppliers deliver their goods as soon as our stores need them. We have had them sign updated service agreements with these new terms clearly stated."

While suppliers understand Boulland's goal of timely delivery, some say imposing charges will not solve the problem unless challenges faced by suppliers are also taken into account.

"There are situations when on-time delivery is out of our control," says Enrique Zapata, a shipping supervisor at one of Boulland's suppliers. "My company often struggles to fulfill orders on time when retailers fail to notify us before their inventories fall to critically low levels. Last-minute adjustments to orders are a significant cause of delayed delivery."

Mr. Zapata insists that if Boulland were to adopt better communication strategies, the issue could be readily resolved. Boulland, however, intends to move forward with its plan and reassess it next year.

18. According to the article, what action by a supplier could result in a penalty?
(A) Missing delivery deadlines
(B) Packaging items improperly
(C) Mislabeling product shipments

(A) The company's leadership must approve the details.
(B) The publicity will be good for business.
(C) Suppliers are eager to put it into action.
(D) Further actions may be necessary.

21. Why does Mr. Zapata mention communication strategies?
(A) To question a marketing decision
(B) To propose a new marketing idea
(C) To offer advice about improving job satisfaction
(D) To suggest a solution to supply problems

Tanya Cataldo (8:35 A.M.)
What about offering a special promotion for new members? Maybe the first two months for the price of one. We could advertise it on social media.

Those are all potential ways to go. Larry, I will need an e-mail with details about the proposed workshop.

ONLINE REVIEW

Rating: ★★★☆☆ Posted by Daniel F., May 8

I bought the X200 in red last month. The coffee tastes great, and the timer is easy to set. However, the warming plate turns off after only about one hour, which is much shorter than advertised. I also wish the water tank were easier to remove for cleaning. Still, the price was reasonable, and the coffee maker arrived quickly at no extra charge.

Dear Mr. Ferris,

Thank you for your review. The problem you described with the warming plate is usually caused by a setting that may have been changed by accident. To restore the full warming time, press and hold the "Warm" button for five seconds until the light blinks twice. If this does not solve the problem, your coffee maker is still under warranty, and we will replace it free of charge.

We are also pleased to let you know that a redesigned model will be released in July. Many customers made the same suggestion as you, and the new model will address it. Best regards, Mei Lin

For this reason, please change the car rental reservation you made for me earlier. I will pick up the car from the Kellysville airport on June 13 as originally planned, but then I'll keep it longer than planned; I will drive the group from the Kellysville office to Riccardi City for the meeting there on June 15. To accommodate the group, I'll need a car that seats six people. I will now be returning the car to the Kellysville airport on June 17. Finally, if you could change my flight reservation so that I'll return from Kellysville on the evening of June 17, I would appreciate it.

CÂU 23–27 · OCEAN CREST MALL

🏬 Metro Area Business Watch - October

The grand opening of the Ocean Crest Mall in Marlow Bay is scheduled for next spring, and available spaces are filling rapidly. Once the mall opens, business is expected to take off just as quickly. While the Ocean Crest Mall is not the only such establishment in Marlow Bay, it will be the first to open directly onto the boardwalk. The mall will include boutiques, specialty stores, and a variety of food vendors. The mall management is hoping to attract business owners from outside Marlow Bay. According to rental manager Barbara Lancer, a number of the businesses that have rented space are new to the area. "This was by design," she explained. "The Marlow Bay City Council offered the mall owners a tax incentive if we are able to bring new businesses to Marlow Bay. We're still a little short of our goal to have 75% of our spaces rented to nonlocal businesses. We are offering reduced rental prices on new leases for out-of-town businesses."

Applications from business owners looking to lease retail and restaurant space will be accepted until the December 15 deadline. Interested business owners are encouraged to contact Lancer by e-mail at blancer@oceancrestmall.com.

Dear Ms. Lancer,

I am a friend of Eric Raye, owner of The Shoe Horn, and he suggested that I contact you about a rental space in the Ocean Crest Mall. He told me about a great benefit that he received that is available to business owners like me. I own Edge Fashion and sell contemporary women's apparel. I have two retail locations in the nearby city of Hazelton, and I am considering expanding to Marlow Bay. If possible, I would like to be near my friend's store, but I do not want a space that is beside a restaurant or food service. A space on the boardwalk side that overlooks the beach would be ideal.

Could you please send me a map of the mall showing any available spaces that might meet my needs? Also, could you provide information about the size of each space and rental fees?

Thank you in advance,
Tracy Fernandez

CÂU 28–32 · RICOEUR PHARMACEUTICALS

🧴 Skin Product Shows Promise
12 October
Ricoeur Pharmaceuticals, a multinational corporation with offices in Canada, France, and South Korea, said today that its experimental cream for excessively dry skin, Dermava, has proved highly effective in a recent research study. Ricoeur highlighted the encouraging results indicating the cream's long-lasting effectiveness. This bodes well for Ricoeur, as the cream, if released, could compensate for the limited growth that Ricoeur has experienced over the past five years.

Dr. Laura Scheffner, an expert consultant, noted, "I was pleasantly surprised by the immediate benefits of the cream. Participants felt relief after a single application." Dr. Heung Soo Choi, a senior researcher for Ricoeur, added that the safety of the medication was also confirmed during the study.

A spokesperson for Ricoeur announced that, while initial results are promising, a follow-up study with very young and elderly participants must be pursued. Only then can the cream be approved by the International Medication Association (IMA) and become available on the market. The IMA is expected to begin its review at the end of the year.

💼 Positions Available at Ricoeur Pharmaceuticals, Ottawa, Canada
Ricoeur Pharmaceuticals has immediate openings for nearly 100 administrative, customer service, and warehouse jobs supporting the launch of Dermava, a new medical treatment for dry skin. Positions do not require previous experience, are part time, and end in December, though exceptional workers may be offered extended assignments. Those applying for customer service positions should be fully bilingual in French and English. Those applying for warehouse positions must be able to work nights and weekends. Candidates can submit their applications at this time by visiting www.ricoeurpharma.ca. Interested parties can also attend group interviews on 11 March at 9:00 A.M. at our production facility, 72B Industrial Way, Ottawa, K2A 3P1. Be sure to bring your résumé and reference list.

MEMO

To: All Staff
From: Brian Holt, Facilities Director
Date: October 3
Subject: Cafeteria improvements

Thank you to everyone who completed last month's cafeteria survey. Based on your feedback, we are making two changes. First, starting October 15, the cafeteria will open at 7:00 A.M. instead of 8:30 A.M. and will remain open until 7:00 P.M., so that employees who work early and late shifts can be served. Second, we will introduce a rotating weekly menu featuring dishes from around the world.

Unfortunately, expanding the seating area is not possible at this time because of budget limits. However, we will review this issue again next year.

156. According to the survey results, which item were employees most satisfied with?

(A) Food quality
(B) Menu variety
(C) Prices
(D) Seating space

157. What is the purpose of the memo?

(A) To ask employees to complete a survey
(B) To announce changes based on employee opinions
(C) To introduce a new facilities director
(D) To explain an increase in food prices

158. Which survey item is the first change intended to address?

(A) Food quality
(B) Prices
(C) Seating space
(D) Opening hours

159. What is suggested about the issue of seating space?

(A) It received the lowest satisfaction rate in the survey.
(B) It will be addressed with a new menu.
(C) It was not included in the survey.
(D) It will not be improved this year.

160. In the memo, the word "rotating" in paragraph 1, is closest in meaning to

(A) spinning
(B) changing regularly
(C) shared equally

Dear Mr. Cole,

Thank you for booking our Scottish Castles Tour for April 18–20. As you requested a single room, the supplement has been added to your total.

Unfortunately, Blair Castle will be closed to visitors on April 20 for a private event. Instead, we will visit Scone Palace, which is famous for its beautiful gardens. We apologize for any disappointment this change may cause. Kind regards, Fiona Burns

★★★★☆ Reviewed by Nathan Cole, April 24

Our guide, Ewan, was knowledgeable and funny. The highlight for me was the lunch at the inn — the best meal of the whole trip. The replacement stop on the last day turned out to be wonderful, especially for someone like me who loves gardening. My only complaint is that the hotel in Pitlochry was a long walk from the town center. I would definitely book with Highland Heritage again.

161. What is NOT included in the price of the tour?

(A) Dinners
(B) Entrance fees
(C) Breakfasts
(D) Hotel accommodations

162. How much did Mr. Cole most likely pay for the tour?

(A) £360
(B) £420
(C) £480
(D) £540

163. Why was the itinerary changed?

(A) A guide became unavailable.
(B) A site was closed to the public.
(C) The weather was expected to be bad.
(D) A hotel was fully booked.

164. What part of the tour did Mr. Cole enjoy most?

(A) A meal on the second day
(B) A walk along the Royal Mile
(C) The hotel in Pitlochry
(D) A visit to Edinburgh Castle

165. What is suggested about Mr. Cole?

(A) He arrived in Edinburgh late.
(B) He traveled with his family.
(C) He has taken several tours with Highland Heritage.
(D) He enjoyed visiting Scone Palace.
